WILCOX AND HIS WORK

HIS ADVICE REGARDING THE CADETSHIP.

Urges Hawaiian Youth to Make Every Endeavor to Prepare for It—Says It is a Coveted Honor.

In the first issue of the "Kaukua Home Rule," the official organ of the Home Rule party, appears a letter from Delegate Wilcox to D. Kalanikoukani relating to the West Point cadetship and the Hawaiian bills in Congress. The following is a translation of the letter:

"Washington, January 23, 1901.
Hon. D. Kalanikoukani,
"Aloha oe a nui!"

"I have received a letter relating to the cadets to West Point. I am sending blank applications for the cadetship candidates to fill out. Instruct them to have themselves examined before a teacher with a view to preparing themselves for their examination at Camp McKinley near Diamond Head next March. The candidates approved by that Military board will be admitted to the military academy. It is considered a great honor by American parents to have their children appointed to this school. Do not let our opponents mislead us as to this honor. In every civilized country in the world youth are instructed in the use of firearms, in fencing and in all branches of military art. And if a youth receives all these he is in a position to secure high honors and to be adorned with epaulettes. From this rank of captain, colonel, general are but steps.

"Probably Joseph Aca or Daniel Yowell will be entitled to one of these appointments. I hope that an Hawaiian will be able to secure one of these appointments. Use all your efforts to help them out. I have letters saying Hawaiians will never pass because of lack of knowledge. I hope these forebodings will not come true.

"I am still working for the benefit of my land and people. There is nothing else that I can relate excepting what we agreed upon. Probably some of the measures we would like will not be passed because congress is occupied with so many measures that have come to it from various sessions, which will take up its time to March 1st.

"I am preparing a way to get my work through and am pushing it forward with discretion—the cable, the harbor improvements, agricultural school, homestead laws for Hawaiians of small means—and all these things are before Congress. Probably some of them will not pass.

"My secretary and all of us have plenty of work.

"I and my children send aloha to you, J. K. Kaula, the Senators and Representatives, the board of directors of the Home Rule Party, and our fellow citizens from Hawaii to Nihaui, and don't forget to pray God for us.

"I am,
"R. W. WILCOX,
Delegate of the Territory of Hawaii."

IMPORTANT TRIP PLANNED

7 and 8 fathoms. It is regarded as very certain that the water is even shallower than this. The moon was up and Captain Stockton was able to get a fair knowledge of the soundings but could have pursued his observations to better advantage had there been day light.

Captain Pond will chart the proper depth of this shoal and will also determine whether the present location of about 26 degrees north latitude and 174 west longitude is correct for Lisianski island. After getting the proper location of the latter place he will go to Ocean island the farthest of the group. Then he will go down to Krusenstern rock, and locate this danger definitely and from there southeast to Johnson island and thence northeast to Honolulu.

GOOD ADVICE TO GIRLS.

Must Not Drink Because All the Other Girls Do.

Thus said a bachelor a few days ago, when asked by his young niece that "all the girls" drank now, according to the Philadelphia Press.

"Take that, my young relative," he said, "and pin it up over your mirror. It isn't a great quotation from one of your poets, but it is a piece of life's wisdom from a man who knows what other men think and what the best and the worst women do.

"If you are level-headed, don't do as 'all the girls' do and drink whiskey cocktails before meals and King William and club soda at lunch in hotel cafes. A glass of Madeira at your mother's dinner table is not wise until you are 25, and even then it is just as well you refuse.

"A woman wants to make herself attractive to man and some one man in particular, that's what you are all up to, isn't it? Well, take my word for it as carefully avoided as a soiled collar, wrinkles and uncombed hair. If a man finds out there is really something strong and fine beneath the surface of a girl who drinks or smokes, rest assured the first thing he will do is to get her to stop it.

"Be level-headed, my young relative and know that things that are the fashion in certain sets are not always the things to adopt. I think you are right about its being the fashion; in all my life I've never seen so much of it done by young and middle-aged women in public in Philadelphia and Atlantic City as for the past two years, but be as exclusive about your habits as you are of your friends."

ROBINSON CRUSOE.

James Defoe, the last male descendant of Daniel Defoe, who died recently in London, a pauper at the age of 82 years, could not have inherited the virility of his famous ancestor. The author of "Robinson Crusoe" thus summed up his own vicissitudinous career: No man has tasted different fortunes more.

And thirteen times I have been rich and poor.

At times he was high in the royal favor. Again he suffered heavy fines, imprisonment and the pillory for his expressed religious and political views; and finally, during the strenuous life, turned to romance and gave us the delightful story with which his name is most identified.—Springfield Republican.

IN THE RUNNING.

"You didn't seem to be in the running at all," exclaimed the friend.
"Oh, yes," answered the defeated candidate cheerfully. "I was in the running, although you may not have seen me. I was getting run over."—Washington Star.

VERY GLOOMY SEND-OFF

MARIPOSA LEAVES IN HEAVY RAIN.

Rough Sea Outside the Harbor Adds to the Discomfort—Good Weather for Hacks.

The rain came heavier than ever just as Kappelmeister Berger's band was finishing its farewell concert to the Mariposa with "Auld Lang Syne" and "Aloha Oe." It was a wet send-off the steamer had and a dismal one, in spite of all Captain Berger and his musicians could do. They played dances, rag-time and music of every other kind, but everybody was either wet or perspiring in the folds of rubber clothing and it was hard to enjoy music.

The Mariposa had a very large passenger list and there was another large crowd on the wharf to see them go, proving again that neither weather nor anything else can keep the Honolulu public from gathering to give farewell to a steamer. Leis were shown in abundance and the decks of the steamer were packed with people up to the time of starting.

The vessel got away at twenty minutes past ten, just as the schooner Robert Lewers arriving from Port Gamble entered the harbor and passed her. Rain was falling in torrents, flooding every street and drenching everyone who ventured out.

It was a glorious day for hacks. For an hour before the steamer left they ran to and fro carrying people who would not wade to the wharf and when it came to returning there were few people willing to make the trip on foot.

The Mariposa was soon out of sight after she got in the channel. She disappeared in the thick rain very soon after she had struck the heavy swell at the outside of the channel. A gloomy, wet day and the rough sea that the Kona has left, combined to give the Mariposa about as unpleasant a start as she could have, but she is running well nowadays and is going to get to San Francisco in six days or less.

Among the passengers, who sailed were Mr. and Mrs. James Doyle, Mr. Doyle is mayor of Victor, Colorado.

Judge A. M. Harrison and wife of Minneapolis who have been here about two weeks returned to the coast by the Mariposa. W. H. Habbitt left for a two or three months' absence in the East.

Captain Marthias of the Salvation Army who expected to leave some time ago, but was prevented by sickness, left today. E. H. Paris left for a trip to the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers and Miss Lewers left for an extended stay on the mainland.

CRIMINAL CASES ARE SET

WILL BE TAKEN UP BY JURY TOMORROW.

Are All Minor Matters and May Be Quickly Disposed of, But Others Follow—Court Notes.

The regular arraignment of criminal cases began this morning in the Circuit court and ten cases were instated upon the calendar. All are minor matters. The fact is that all of the criminal cases to come before this term, except perhaps the Gill shooting affair, will be such. The interest to the community at large, it is hinted about the court house that the Gill case cannot be tried before this term unless it can be shown that the presiding judge is not the employer of the defendant. This is, of course, merely rumor and is given as such. The petty jury has been summoned for Friday morning and cases will be taken up at once. In all probability all of the matters on the criminal calendar to date may be disposed of this week, although there will be a batch later.

The estate of the late James Hutchings, grocer in the Progress block, turned out to be in much more satisfactory shape than was at first reported. As a matter of fact, the estate is worth, clear of all incumbrances the sum of $399.14. Of the assets which foot up $12,139.02, the handsome total of $3,591.27 is cash in bank, which is cash on hand in the business. The total indebtedness, which also includes a mortgage on real estate, is only $4,028.88. R. L. Waldron, the administrator of the estate, files the inventory which has proved satisfactory to the friends of the late Mr. Hutchings and his family.

J. A. Magoon, administrator of the estate of the late B. E. Steigman, has filed an inventory of the property, showing the same to be worth $2950. Steigman is the man who ran the little store near the corner of King and Bethel street, and shot both himself and wife to death one night while in a jealous rage.

In the matter of the Hawaiian Automobile Company vs. J. A. McCandless, superintendent of public works, being an action to compel the connection of its drain pipes with the city sewer free of charge, the respondent has filed an answer in which he "talks back" pretty sharply. He declares that the automobile people use certain chemicals in their business that will greatly injure the sewers and then makes a general defense as to the bill. He concludes by preferring a counter charge against the company, to the effect that they have again, without authority of law reconnected the pipes.

In the matter of the Japan Immigration Company vs. Maunalei Sugar Co., assumpt, respondent has filed an answer claiming that the case has been improperly brought.

Joseph K. Clark has been granted a divorce from Abbie K. Clark.

In the court this morning Mrs. Bartlett's attorney, S. M. Ballou, moved to require defendant to pay the expenses of appeal to the Supreme court. This was denied. In addition to this the court went on to rule that a former order allowing alimony to Mrs. Bartlett was revoked.

Recent excavations in Rome have brought to view the interior of the basilica of the Virgin, probably the earliest church dedicated to Mary in the ancient city. How ancient it is cannot be known, but it was written of as old in the eighth century, to which date, when Pope Paul I restored it, the now uncovered remains belong for the most part, though there are on one of the walls traces of frescoes which are ascribed to the reign of Justinian. In the ninth century the church was destroyed, it is supposed by an earthquake and abandoned, and its diocese was transferred in 847 to Sta Maria Nuova, now Sta Francesca, near the arch of Titus.—Springfield Republican.

THINK OF THESE THINGS.

If we cannot eat we starve. Every body who does not die of violence finally starves to death. "In nearly all diseases," says an eminent physician, "starvation is the final cause of death." It is not the food on the table, but the food you eat and digest, that nourishes you. In all wasting complaints the appetite and digestion weaken or fail and the body fades away. The true remedy must be one which at the same time invigorates the digestive powers and acts, in and of itself, as a food. It must build up the body faster than it is destroyed and also stop the tendency to "wasting by curing the disease. The researches of modern science have placed such a remedy within our reach; and the wasting diseases, which have so long been the terror of the human race, yield at once to the healing power of

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION.

It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. The palate accepts it as it does sugar, confectionery or cream. You don't have to force it down the children; you don't turn away from it yourself. The action of this effective remedy is prompt and its effects permanent; taken before meals it goes to the very secret stronghold of all digestive disorders. Prevents and cures Fevers, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Bowel Complaints, Anemia, General Debility, Throat and Lung Troubles and all diseases due to impurity of the blood. No slow or doubtful action. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists everywhere.

NOT FOR RUSSELL.

Under the new army bill there will be places for 700 officers; and not one of them will be for Russell Harrison unless his distinguished father should happen to change his views on certain things.—Chicago Record.
